Summary: I wrote short h2o stories which were inspired by the song I was listening to at the moment. I'm not good at summaries. Read inside for more details

H2O: Song short stories

I had an inspiration today. I decided to write short h2o stories while listening to songs and write one per song I heard. I wrote seven stories for seven of my favorite songs. So, please enjoy, and do look up these songs. I really like these songs, and they all have a powerful message.

We Live by Superchick

Cleo woke up to a dark day. There secret had been revealed a month >earlier. The publicity had hounded her, Rikki, Bella, and Emma for a while now. "our live are over!" Emma complained.

>"It's not over Emma. We need to live. It may be a dark morning, but we have to shine through," Cleo said, "life is worth living. We live, we >love. We forgive, and never give up. That's who we are. Our days and lives are gifts from above."

Something Beautiful by the Newsboys

>Rikki sat up. Thunder rolled calmly in the skies above as the storm just passed. She walked outside into the fresh wet grasses, and >watched the sunrise come up in the beautiful morning. Cleo and Emma walked up behind her.

>"what is it?" Emma asked.
"everything," Rikki replied, "nature is truely something >beautiful. Even us, as mermaids. We're miracles. It's incredible to think about. Also, this bond we have as mermaids. It's the love >between us."

Emma and Cleo stood beside Rikki so they could all enjoy the >sunrise. And it was something beautiful.

Starry Night by Chris August

>Bella stared up at the full moon. It no longer affected her and the other mermaids. A tear of joy slid silently down her cheek.

>"beautiful," she said to Will, "to think that's the perfect reflection, perfectly designed. And perfectly pretty."

>"as are you," will whispered to you. Bella sat back against him. "amazing," she thought, "it was designed by god."

By Your Side by Tenth Avenue North

>Lewis ran down to the beach. Cleo was down there crying.
"what's wrong?" he asked. "it's my parents," she said between sobs, "they're >scared to accept me as a mermaid."
"whatever they do, don't worry. I'm here for you. I'll be by >your side whenever. Whenever you call me or need me, I'll be there.
Yes, I love you Cleo. I won't ever let you go. You're my love."
>Cleo lunged forward and embraced Lewis. "I'll be by your side forever," he said.

Dive by Steven Curtis Chapman

"we're mermaids," Emma said, "there's no use going against it. Today, >we share the world our secret." Cleo, Rikki, and Bella looked shocked at her.
>"you know we can't go back to normalness afterward," Bella said.
"I don't care," Emma said, "I'm diving in. Whether we get >swept away, I don't care. Let's go the depth of the ocean. We reveal our secret to the world."
>"how?"
"I don't know, but come on let's go. Take my hands and let's >dive into this. Whatever happens, we're in this together. We're diving in."

Blessings by Laura Story

>"what's wrong?" lewis asked Cleo. Cleo was sobbing.
"I can't take this," she said, "I don't wanna be a mermaid >anymore."
"Cleo, this is a blessing you have. Whether sometimes it comes >in raindrops or tears. We hope and pray for wisdom and help, but sometimes it doesn't happen."
>"I don't have a blessing, only a curse."
"no it's not Cleo. These trials you go through everyday, are >gifts from god. You must cherish. You aren't normal. But, i love you so much."

How to Save a Life by The Fray

>Rikki couldn't believe it. She just couldn't. She cried long during the funeral. "why Bella why?" she thought. "if only I couldve stopped >you, if only I couldve talked to you." she looked up to see Will in the front row. The poor guy had been hit hard by Bella's suicide.

>"I should've talked to her. I would've stayed up all night.
Had I known how to save life. Where did I go wrong. I lost a great >friend. In the bitterness." It cause more violent sobs to come from her small body. "why? I should've known. Known how to save a life."

So, did you like them? As I said before, I strongly encourage that you look up these songs on playlist, youtube, itunes, etc. They're really good. My favorite out of these is How to Save a Life by The Fray. Anyway, please review your thoughts and I'll see you all later.

(P.S. Another song that I encourage you look up is He's my Son by Mark Schulz. It's a very sad yet inspiring song and Mark Schulz is an incredible singer. I did not have a chance to write a song about it though)
